NÜRNBERG MESSE

5 GOOD REASONS

Participation as exhibitor at the BrauBeviale

BrauBeviale is one of the leading beverage industry capital equipment trade exhibitions worldwide. Its range of products covers the entire process chain of beverage production and marketing.

Over half a century of experience and expertise

What began in Bamberg in 1957 with an expert conference has been managed by NürnbergMesse since 1978, and has evolved into one of the leading beverage industry capital equipment trade exhibitions. Here, tradition and long-standing experience meet inspiration and the latest trends. Ever since its beginnings, the BrauBeviale concept has been supported by the Bavarian association of privately-owned breweries, Verband Private Brauereien Bayern e. V., which contributes its expertise, its network and also one of the world's most renowned beer awards, the European Beer Star.

We stand for variety

The world of beverages is getting together under one roof. What's on offer covers the entire beverage manufacturing process chain, from raw materials, technologies and components to packaging, as well as accessories and marketing ideas. Almost 80% of the visitors hail from the various beverage industry sectors.

Products on display

- Raw materials and sensory refinement
- Technologies for manufacturing and filling beverages
- Water treatment/analysis/components
- Packaging
- Accessories and marketing

Regular place to meet for the beverage industry

Compact, well-organised, and the optimum conditions for effective networking within the beverage community. You can present your latest products and services here, get some inspiration from talking to your customers and pave the way for or actually enter into new business relationships. Achieving more together: Come, or you will miss out.

All of your target groups in one place

You can meet existing customers here, as well as new ones of the highest quality. Welcome trade visitors from all sectors of the beverage industry, technologists and marketing specialists, as well as representatives from the beverage specialist (wholesale) retail, hotel and hospitality business. You can therefore show your practical solutions and innovative ideas precisely to the target group that is looking for them.
